◆ Pray for our Mission Teams.

I am so blessed to be living in the high country amidst the beautiful mountains of North Carolina and to enjoy daily the beauty of God's creation! Last week as I walked in the crisp morning air and spent time with the Lord in prayer I could actually see my breath. This reminded me of Psalm 150. "Let everything that has breath praise the Lord". The coolness also reminded me that fall is on its way. That means that we will soon be preparing Christmas boxes to send to El Salvador. It is hard to believe that it is already that time of year again. I am excited because we have a team that is training now to travel to El Salvador in December to help distribute the Christmas boxes. I have been in El Salvador when the distribution of these boxes took place. I cannot begin to describe the joy that a small box brings to a precious child that will not be receiving anything else but that box for Christmas. The greatest thing is they learn about the true meaning of what Christmas is all about. A Savior came to earth as a babe, died for them so they could live for Him. How eager they are to hear about this One that loves them so dearly. I want to thank all of you that have given a Christmas Gift Box in the past. Last year Bob and Angelique, the missionaries in El Salvador and our partners in ministry, received over 6,000 boxes. What praise! I want you all to know that I love you and I am thankful for your giving hearts. I am proud to be in partnership with you as we make a difference in children's lives one child at a time!

May He be praised,
Homer
